

Student has now lost their transportation

Student is now failing all their classes

Student's FAFSA has not been completed and they have no other income while in school

Student is now experiencing an exacerbation of an ongoing mental health concern

Student is now experiencing a physical health concern affecting attendance

Student has now experienced a death in the family

Student now has a sick family member they need to care for

Student has now lost their permanent housing

Student has now been notified they're being deployed

Student has now been notified a family member is being deployed

Student has now been notified their academic program is being cancelled

Student has now received word they have been laid off from their job

Student has now experienced a traumatic event

Student is now homeless

Student has now fractured the hand they write with

Student has now purchased a car and has a car payment

Student now has a hold and an outstanding tuition balance due

Student has now gotten married and needs to change their name

Student has now received word their daycare is closing

Student's family is now unsupportive emotionally and financially

Student has now joined a campus club and is very actively involved, affecting their academics

Student has now been accepted into Section 8 housing

Student has now been hired as a campus work-study

Student has now received a job promotion and their work hours changed

Student has now had a baby

Student has now made the President's list

Student has now received a scholarship from the foundation

Student has now been approved for MNSure

Student has now been notified 30 credits were accepted for Credit for Prior Learning

Student has now secured a roommate to assist with rent and expenses

Student has now retaken the Accuplacer and their scores have improved

Student has now found and joined a support group (religious, community or other)